

Natural Resource Management, Wetland, and Environmental Permitting Services

Jenna Villas, Environmental Scientist

Jenna is an environmental professional specializing in natural resource assessments, regulatory compliance, and listed species surveys. Jenna is a Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission Licensed Gopher Tortoise Agent. Jenna conducts tree inventories, as well as wetland monitoring for various types of projects.

She is an active member of the Florida Association of Environmental Professionals and is committed to advancing responsible land use, conservation practices, and natural resource management.